edmodo

Edmodo provided an opportunity for real-time collaboration with my students where we can share assignments, comments about class work, grades, and resources for class.

Every day I post learning objectives and class goals for students to access in order to help them understand and monitor their learning processes.

Sample Day's Work

My Post with links to Videos at the bottom:

Information in Spanish for ESL students

Students communicating with one another to ask questions after a class discussion.